Dear Students....

I would like to warmly welcome you all to the 2017 academic year.

As you will have noted, we are all in a new home this year at Northwood School. This will inshaAllah be our home for many years to come and we are proud to have found a new home where all our students, from our very youngest ones in class 1 who are 4 years old to our oldest students who are 16 can be under one roof.

There are many advantages of being in a school not least the educational atmosphere, the educational resources available, and the various sports facilities that we will also be able to utilise in the future. In short, there is something to be gained for everyone.

However, with this fantastic opportunity comes with the responsibility to look after and care for our new environment. Whilst this is the new home for the Madressa we are ultimately guests who have been kindly given permission to use these facilities and we should behave as we would want guests to behave in our own house.

I kindly request all students, to treat our new home with respect and behave with the Akhlaq of Ahlul Bayt (as) towards one another and our new environment.

Let us collectively show the outside world how Muslims look after the property of others, the way our Prophet Muhammed (saw) would care for the property even of his hardened enemies who would refer to him as Al-Sadiq (the truthful one) and Al-Amin (the trustworthy one).

I hope that during the course of this year, each of you will increase in your knowledge and understanding of our wonderful religion, and also enjoy your time both inside and outside the classroom with your teachers and friends. There are exciting new plans being made to help deliver more experiences and I hope that you will all take part.

I pray that the year ahead is both spiritually fulfilling and intellectually fruitful for all and remember to keep us all in your prayers as you will be in mine.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE YOU ARE LATE:
If you will be more than 10 minutes late in the morning, your parent / guardian must call the Madressa office at 07709772671.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE GOING TO BE ABSENT:
If you are going to be absent, notify the Madressa office via the Parent Portal. Details on how to submit a Student Absence Notification can be found on www.madressa.net. (Please refer to our Attendance / Absence Policy on Page VII to see definition of Authorised and Unauthorised absences)

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE LEAVING MADRESSA EARLY:
You must have a written and signed note from your parent / guardian on the ‘Leaving Early Record Form’ (Pg XX). Please then show this note to your teacher. Parents are to come to the reception area at the entrance of the school where an administrative member will then go collect the student from their respective classes. (Please note, students will not be allowed to leave the building on their own if leaving early)

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FEEL UNWELL DURING MADRESSA:
Ask your teacher’s permission to be excused and proceed to the administrative office and speak to a member of staff who will be able to assist further.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO SIT AN ASSESSMENT OR COMPLETE AN ASSIGNMENT:
As soon as you are aware that you may not be able to sit a test or complete an assignment, your parent / guardian must inform the Madressa office immediately via email (admin@madressa.net).

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY AND THE FIRE ALARM IS HEARD:
• Follow your teacher’s instructions and respond when called
• Leave all personal belongings (including shoes) and exit your classroom quietly and quickly in an orderly fashion. Meeting Points will be announced by the class teachers.

CLASS 1-4 LUNCH:
You must bring in a named lunch box and a bag big enough to carry your manual and lunch box.
The two main functions of the Parent Consultation Board are:

- Act as a liaison between parents and the Madressa Administration
- Plan and coordinate activities that will encourage parental involvement with the Madressa

As part of the PCB duties, they hope to present the viewpoint of parents to the Madressa Administration and help respond to the needs of children, parents and the wider community. They will also be working with Madressa on planning, target setting and developing policies, as well as being involved in planning and coordinating events such as the Events Day and fundraising events.

The Parent Consultation Board can be contacted by email at pcb@madressa.net

The Learning Support Department was born out of parents' wishes that students with additional needs, be integrated into mainstream classes as they often are in schools, but with 1:1 support. We have children with varies needs ranging from low/mild needs to those who have complex needs.

The Head of Learning Support works closely with the teachers and parents to identify the children’s needs and every week produce worksheets that these children can follow in class, all the children are fully involved in class activities. Where possible we try to ensure that the children have the same Learning Support assistant on a weekly basis.

Children who have more complex needs are assisted by Learning Support assistants who have been there for some time.

Support will be provided to each Learning Support assistant, what we really require is someone who is friendly, committed and reliable to basically sit with the children and assist them in anything they would find difficult much as a teaching assistant would do in a regular school.

The Learning Support team is a friendly team who support each other and the Head of the Learning Support team is also on hand to provide any support that is needed. It really is a blessing to work with these children, most of the time all that is needed is some practical hands on support and a friendly smile to boost the children’s confidence. To summarise we desperately need volunteers to help with the children in writing things down, getting involved in class discussions and checking that they understand what has been taught in class. If you are interested in volunteering visit www.madressa.net
Following its successful pilot in 2016, the Behaviour management policy is being implemented as part of madressa policy in order to reward positive behaviour and manage negative behaviour effectively.

POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR

Positive behaviour will earn green cards for actions such as:

- Demonstrating helpful behaviour – helping peers, carrying bags, helping with furniture, sharing, etc., actively participating in lesson, demonstrating supportive behaviour towards peers, e.g. encouraging participation, exceptional piece of work, taking an initiative: e.g. clearing up rubbish that doesn't belong to them.

NEGATIVE BEHAVIOUR:

Negative behaviour will result in either a yellow or red card issued by a teacher. When a teacher has repeatedly given clear instructions for a student to stop an unacceptable behaviour, and the student continues their inappropriate behaviour, a yellow card may be issued:

- Talking while others are talking (teacher or students) during lesson, being disrespectful to others (teacher or student)/ disruptive / boisterous, misusing Madressa property (e.g. writing on tables), unauthorised use of electronic gadget – teachers to confiscate the gadget and hand to Madressa office. Parent/Guardian to collect from office.

Red cards will be issued for repeating of any yellow card offence twice in a day.

Straight red cards may also be issued for the following offences:

- Bullying, swearing, fighting, intentionally missing a lesson or Salaah (bunking), inappropriate language towards any member of Madressa, any other offence as deemed inappropriate by the Madressa Administration.

PROCEDURE:

Our vision at SIM is nurturing a community of students that exhibit the features of the Ahlul Bayt (AS). Therefore, our teachers will make every effort to provide an environment in which children can learn successfully by using effective classroom management techniques, setting clear expectations and providing engaging and varied lessons. Only as a last resort, will the teacher manage children’s behaviour through the behaviour management system as per the procedure below:

- Repeated verbal warnings
- 1st offence – First Yellow Card: Admin will inform parents through the parent portal
- 2nd offence – Second Yellow Card the same day and hence Red card: Admin will inform parents through the parent portal and parent called in the same day if possible to discuss the matter.
- Straight Red Card: Student sent to office and parents will be called in the same day if possible.
- Three yellow cards at separate occasions – Parents will be invited for a discussion to discuss the child’s behaviour and how to work together towards a positive resolution.
- Two red cards in one term: Possible suspension for the remainder of the term or any other resolution that may deemed appropriate by the administration.
ATTENDANCE / ABSENCE POLICY

Regular and punctual Madressa attendance is important. Students need to attend Madressa regularly if they are to take full advantage of the educational opportunities available to them. A student who has enrolled in the Madressa is expected to attend punctually on all Madressa Days. The Attendance/ Absence policy has been updated for the 2017 Academic Year and has been reviewed and ratified by the Parent Consultation Board (PCB).

Attendance data will be continuously reviewed by the Madressa to monitor attendance levels and the same data will be made available online to parents via the Parent Portal so that any discrepancies may be rectified as soon as possible.

AUTHORISED ABSENCES

* illness, medical or dental appointments
* Family bereavement; Attending Funeral of family member; Family emergency
* Suspension or exclusion by Madressa
* Mandatory School events/exams
* Ziyarah
* Participation in Charity event
* Exceptional occasions (the nature of such occasions will be determined by the Madressa on an individual basis)
* Only the Madressa can make an absence authorised. Parents do not have this authority. Consequently not all absences supported by parents will be classified as authorised.

UNAUTHORISED ABSENCES

Absence will not be authorised in the following circumstances:

* Family holidays
* School exam revision; Tuitions
* Leaving early due to travelling distances or any other reason deemed invalid as determined by the Madressa
* Hosting/Attending Majalis (other than family bereavement); attending Religious processions
* Duke of Edinburgh like events
* Going for a family day out; birthday events; wedding events; sporting, Social & school related events (non-Mandatory)
* No explanation has been offered by the parent/carer
* The explanation offered, if not listed above, is unsatisfactory as determined by Madressa

Therefore the absence is unauthorised if a student is away from Madressa without good reason, even with the support of a parent.

To view the full policy and the consequences of unauthorised absences, please visit www.madressa.net

Note: The S I Madressa reserves the right to alter the policy and will notify parents by email of changes that are made.
WHAT are Assessments?

Assessment is a process of gathering and discussing information from multiple and diverse sources in order to develop a deep understanding of what students know, understand, and can do with their knowledge as a result of their educational experiences.

WHY Assess?

We assess so that:

- Teachers can regularly and consistently measure the success of their teaching by how well learners develop their knowledge, skills and understanding considering the End of Year Expectations (EoYE).
- Teachers can plan learning opportunities that reflect the needs of children.
- Children who are falling behind can be identified and therefore supported to address their needs.
- Children who are exceeding expectations can be identified and extended further.
- Parents can understand how their child’s learning is progressing on a termly basis.
- Madressa can gather data to ensure continual improvement.

HOW will we Assess in Madressa?

1. Teachers will carry out regular ongoing assessment of children as they teach to ensure that the EoYE are met. This is called Assessment for Learning.

Assessment for Learning can be carried out through a variety of activities:

- Verbal/Written Questioning
- Debates
- Role Play
- Worksheets
- Crossword
- A question put up on the board for children to answer
- Learning Logs
- Observations
- Video Recordings
- Games

During assessment for learning activities, teachers will assess children in the areas of:

- Knowledge and Understanding
- Skills and Presentation
- Behaviour and Participation

Teachers will keep their own records and ensure the age appropriateness of the activities. This will help teachers know how well students are learning. They will have an opportunity to close any gaps in learning as they go along.
2. Teachers will complete a termly report on how children are performing, using the following descriptions: Weak, Average, Good, Very Good

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>Knowledge &amp; Understanding</th>
<th>Skills &amp; Presentation</th>
<th>Behaviour &amp; Participation</th>
<th>Teacher’s Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Qur’an Appreciation</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>

</tr>
<tr>

<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beliefs &amp; Actions</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Important Note:

- Knowledge and Understanding will be assessed against the End of Term/Year Learning Statements for each subject.
- Skills and Presentation will include student’s ability to communicate their understanding confidently, present their work coherently and neatly.
- Behaviour and Participation will be based on the demonstration of positive Akhlaq both in and out of class, student’s engagement in Madressa and behaviour for learning. For the very young classes positive behaviour will be promoted and consistently encouraged through stickers and other rewards whilst for older classes the Madressa Behaviour Management Policy is in force.

3. Special Projects - [Class 3-10]

To assess students in their ability to work collaboratively and organise themselves to achieve an objective whilst taking responsibility for their individual and collective learning, madressa will continue to have special projects throughout the year.

- Term 1 – MEH
- Term 2 – BA
- Term 3 – QA

Teachers will present a topic (or choice of topics) for students to research and offer students their preferred way of demonstrating their understanding. For example:

- Powerpoint
- Presentations
- Video Clips
- Posters
- Diary Entries
- Newspaper Articles
- Plays
- Debates

The projects will not be graded but they will form a part of the end of term assessment.
“Whoever joins himself (to another) in a good cause shall have a share of it, and whoever joins himself (to another) in an evil cause shall have the responsibility of it, and Allah controls all things.” [4:85]

PERSONAL AKHLAQ

At the Madressa we expect all our students to have the best Akhlaq. Remember you are always responsible for your own Akhlaq!

In accordance with the above, students are expected to display the following Akhlaq in all classes and all situations:

- Always be your best and do your best
- Treat all others and their property with courtesy & respect
- Listen to your teacher and to your classroom colleagues when they are speaking
- Follow all the instructions given by your teacher
- Make sure you bring all appropriate materials to class
- Be on time for all lessons and activities

The above etiquettes are aimed to establish a fair and equal classroom environment where everyone can participate without any fears.

CLASSROOM AKHLAQ

- Each week you are expected to bring: your manual; pens; pencils; rulers and erasers
- An Islamic dress code should be observed by all [see below]
- Food, drink, chewing gum etc are only to be consumed during break time.
- Classrooms must be left as clean as they were at the beginning of the day
- Valuable items (mobile phones, iPods etc) are to be kept switched off and stored at the bottom of your bag. All items are brought in at your own risk. Confiscated items can only be collected by parents/guardians from the Madressa office.

The Madressa fully expects all its students to ensure that these rules are observed at all times and in all situations.

What is the Islamic dress code for the Madressa?

Girls: Loose abaya, head scarf covering the neck part with no make up or nail varnish and minimal or discrete jewellery.

Boys: No shorts, jewellery (i.e. Earrings) or hats (aside from Muslim prayer hats) / hoods.
“There is no personal merit more useful than good manners”

[Imam Ali (as): Bihar al-Anwar]

UNACCEPTABLE AKHLAQ IS AS FOLLOWS:

- Stealing
- Running in corridors or between classrooms
- Shouting
- Possessing an offensive weapon
- Swearing
- Damaging property
- Bullying [see below]
- Selling goods
- Smoking
- Possessing, distributing or using illegal drugs

BULLYING IS:

- UNACCEPTABLE
- ANY ACTION that which HURTS or THREATENS another person physically, mentally or emotionally
- being UNFRIENDLY, EXCLUDING PEOPLE or TEASING
- PUSHING, HITTING, NAME CALLING or SPREADING RUMOURS
- MISUSING THE INTERNET, EMAILS, SMS, MEDIA MESSAGING, SOCIAL MEDIA or any other electronic interface

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE OR YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS BEING BULLIED:

You must always speak to an adult – either a teacher, parent or member of the Madressa administration, who will be willing to help.

Know that any bullying incident is treated in the strictest of confidence and will be dealt with both quickly and appropriately.
"He who travels in the search of knowledge, to him God shows the way of Paradise."
Holy Prophet Muhammad (SAW)

Remember that it is every Muslim’s duty to gain knowledge and learn as much as you can!

Knowledge is what we learn and then apply in our life every day. You can learn new things at home from your parents, at the Mosque, in Madressa, at school, and many other places. We will concentrate on learning in Madressa. There are some important things you must do when you are intending on learning something:

1. Say Bismillahir Rahmaanir Raheem before you start your lesson

بِسْمِ اللهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

2. Sit up straight in your chair and prepared for the lesson
3. Don’t talk while the teacher is talking
4. Listen to the teacher and your classmates carefully

Always remember to start with the following Du’a:

بِسْمِ اللهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

 ربِ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا وَزُرْقِي فَاهُمًا

O Lord, Increase my Knowledge, And Increase my Understanding

Have you visited your Madressa website? It is still being update but will soon contain lots of great videos including movies about Prophet Sulayman (as), Prophet Yusuf (as) and Bibi Maryam (as). Make sure you visit www.madressa.net! Did you know that on the Madressa website, in the Creative Resources section there are lots of games and puzzles for you to play and enjoy at home with your parents, brothers & sisters, other relatives or friends. Make sure you check these, it’s great fun for the holidays!

Quran Explorer | www.quranexplorer.com
Isn’t the Holy Qur’an wonderfully peaceful to listen to? Well you can enjoy listening to the Qur’an online along with the English translation by going to the following website www.quranexplorer.com. There are also many different reciters to choose from like Mishari Rashid Al-Afasy, Abdul Basit, Saad al-Ghamdhi and many many others!

The Official Website of Syed Ali al-Sistani | www.sistani.org
Our Marja’, Syed Ali al-Sistani (may Allah [swt] prolong his life) has his own website which contains both Islamic Laws (book of Fiqh rules) and a Question and Answer section. Visit his website at www.sistani.org.

Al-Islam AhlulBayt Digital Islamic Library Project | www.al-islam.org
Have you ever thought that you just don’t know enough about your religion? Well there is a massive resource bank which holds lots of information about Islam and also contains audio / video lectures. Visit www.al-islam.org and learn about Islam to your hearts content.

Who is Hussain? | www.whoishussain.org
Do you really know Imam Hussain [A]? Do you know why Imam (as) took a stand about Yazid (LA)? Why are we still crying for Imam Hussain (as) today more than 1400 years after his martyrdom and why is it so important that we remember him every single year? Well, you can find the answer to all these questions and more here at www.whoishussain.org.
This is a space for you to write down your homework that is given by your class teacher. It is important that you make a note of all the details which your teacher provides so that you can complete the work at home in your own time.

If you have any queries when you are completing your homework, please contact either your teacher or you can email the Madressa (admin@madressa.net) and we can forward your email to your class teacher.

This is a space for your parents to write down if you will be leaving Madressa early. The note must be signed and dated by your parents. Your parents must then come to the reception area at the entrance of the school where an administrative member will then go collect the student from their respective classes.

INTRODUCTION
The Madressa Syllabus has been divided by four key subjects, each colour coded for ease of reference:

- ‘AQĀ’ID - BELIEFS
- FIQH - ISLAMIC LAW
- AKHLĀQ - MORALS AND ETHICS
- TĀRĪKH - HISTORY

For Classes 1-3, lessons are ordered to link to previous lessons and to provide a flow in learning.

For Classes 4-10, lessons in the manual have been categorised in 3 major categories; combining Akhlaq and Tarihk together as ‘Morals, Ethics & History’. Here, lessons of Tarihk have been arranged linking to a subject in Akhlaq that shares a common theme or is a lesson from the Tarihk subject.

Within each lesson, you will see clear titles and subtitles as well as the use of symbols and colour coded boxes representing different features of the lesson. Below you will find a summary.

In some places you may also see ‘Du’a boxes that highlight a key ‘Du’a related to the lesson.

We have also easily identified Qur’anic verses and Hadith by the following symbols:

- Qur’anic Verse
- Hadith
The learning objectives have been clearly identified at the beginning of every lesson.

A section for notes has been provided where there is place, for students to jot down their own notes for the lesson.

This box contains interesting facts related to the lesson.

Each lesson will have a “Did you know’ box prior to conclusion of the lesson stating related and interesting facts.

At the end of every lesson, a summary of the key points helps with revision and summarising the lesson.

Every lesson has key points that are summarised at the end for students to review and remind themselves of what the highlights of the lesson were.

Every lesson has an activity which students can conduct in the classroom to make the lesson fun, exciting and memorable.

The activity helps students better understand the lesson and how to relate to the key points in the lesson.

This box contains questions which enable the student work out how much of the lesson they have understood.

Summary questions enable students to see how much of the lesson they have understood and which areas need revision.
Dear Parents,

By the Grace of Alläh [SWT] we have been fortunate enough to re-produce our manuals for Classes 1-4 with more refined content and design.

There are several new concepts introduced in the manuals which we would like to further explain. The table of Contents outlines the subjects as they will be taught, linking to each other. The different colours represent different subjects.

- Akhaq
- Fiqh
- Tarikh

There are several sections under one subject, allowing teachers and students to learn at a steady pace, and not necessarily all in one go. For example, the Kalimah is split into 6 sections, as ideally, the lesson is taught one line at a time, giving students the time to memorise what they have learnt, at home.

In addition, there are also ‘Lessons at Home’ boxes, encouraging interaction with parents through the lessons. We hope parents can take this addition and work with their child(ren) at home to keep the learning consistent.

This is a milestone in SIM History as we branch beyond basic concepts to teach our students the fundamentals of Islam and help, hand in hand with parents and students, to establish a firm foundation for our future generation.

It is with your continuous support that we hope to see this new format as a success.

With Du’as

APPENDIX

I. Story Time Special: Allāh [SWT] is the only Creator................................................... pg 53
II. Story Time Special: Talk to Allāh [SWT]!................................................................. pg 55
Dear Allāh [SWT]

Whatever I learn today,
Please let it help me in my life.

Please let me understand this wonderful knowledge the way Your prophets understood it.
And give me an excellent memory like you gave them.

Let my tongue always be filled with Your remembrance and my heart with Your love.

Please help me prepare myself with all that I learn so that when the 12th Imam [A] comes, he will pick me to help him.

With love, your Class 3 Student

Dear Allāh [SWT]

I have worked hard today to learn new things,
Please help me remember them.

When I have to answer questions or share my knowledge please bring it back to me.

You are my Protector, You are my Guide.

With love, your Class 3 Student
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- What is Niyyah? There should be a Niyyah for everything that we do.
- Allāh [SWT]’s gave us everything!

SECTION 1

In everything that we do, we should start with the name of Allāh [SWT], Who has given us the ability to be here today. He gave us life so that we could wake up this morning, He gave us feet so that we could walk and get ready, He gave us wonderful parents who gave us breakfast and helped us in the morning, and He gave us good teachers who are ready to teach us new things this year.

Before we begin our lessons this year, we have to try and understand the meaning of “Niyyah”.

1. Niyyah – this means “Intention”.

In Islam, there should be a niyyah for everything that we do and our niyyah should be Qurbatan ilallāh – seeking closeness to Allāh [SWT]

Can you answer why we come to Madressa?
When we come to Madressa, we make a niyyah in our mind that we will come to the Madressa to learn something new. We make a niyyah in our mind that we will take some new information and try to practice it in our lives.

Everything we do, we should know why we are doing it and should be aware. For example, when we pray our ṣalāh, we are doing it for the pleasure of Allāh [SWT].

Lesson in Practice: At Home

What does it mean to make a Niyyah when we are doing something? Help your child to make a Niyyah before he/she does anything.
When we are praying ṣalāh we say “I am praying x rakaʿāt, Qurbatan ilallāh”. Our niyyah is that we are praying, for fajr, two rakaʿāt, for the Pleasure of Allāh [SWT].

The niyyah that we make; for ṣalāh, for fasting in the month of Ramadān, or even for coming to Madressa, should always be for the pleasure of Allāh [SWT].

For any good action, we should always think that we are doing this because Allāh [SWT] is watching us and knows what we are doing at all times. This action will make Him happy with us.

Can you give an example of how coming to Madressa can be for the Pleasure of Allāh [SWT]?

By coming to Madressa, we might be making our parents happy; and by making our parents happy, we are also making Allāh [SWT] happy.

Also, we can take everything that we have learnt and teach it to others, or even try to practice it in our lives, so that Allāh [SWT] will be happy with us.

We must understand the importance of having the right niyyah. If we do not have the right niyyah for our actions, they can be as big as mountains, but they will not weigh more than a piece of straw.

Let us start by making the right Niyyah for everything that we do. Allāh [SWT] is Just and Fair and will give us reward for that which we do sincerely (al-ʿAdl).

He is also All-Forgiving and will forgive us if we ask Him sincerely if we make a mistake (al-Ghafūr).
SECTION 2

Allāh [SWT] has many names known as the Asma’ul Husna. This means the good names, or the names that are good to call Him by. These 99 names are those that we can call Allāh [SWT] by at any time. These names are beautiful and each has a unique meaning and is recommended to recite at certain times. One of these names is Al-Qadir which means ‘The Able’ and ‘The Powerful’. In the Holy Qur’an In Sura-e-Ma’idha, Verse 17 this word is explained in more detail:

This shows us the power that Allāh [SWT] has! Imagine, He is the Owner of the Heavens and the Earth, and He has Created all Creation. No matter how hard we tried we would not be able to create something the way Allāh [SWT] can. This power is unique to Allāh [SWT] and nobody else.

Another name of Allāh [SWT]’s is Al-Bari’ which means ‘The One who Puts in Order’. This name refers to how Allāh [SWT] Creates everything and determines how it will be in His design. Allāh [SWT] is the One who has Created everything, even the peace and harmony around us. We should keep this name in mind when we are trying to organise or arrange something in our lives in the right way.

Allāh [SWT] also has a name known as Al-Ghaffar which means ‘The Forgiving’. It is mentioned several times in the Holy Qur’an that Allāh [SWT] is All-Forgiving. It is very important for us to understand the Power of Forgiving. Not only should we forgive others, but we should also forgive ourselves as Allāh [SWT] may also forgive us if we ask sincerely. This name is highly recommended to be recited to control our anger (so that we do not get upset with others).

We should always be thankful to Allāh [SWT] after learning of His attributes and names. These are to help us better understand Allāh [SWT]. He is our Creator and He alone deserves for us to worship Him. We should try to take little time every day to remember Allāh [SWT] by one of His names and thank Him for all that He has given us.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

We should know which other ways we can call Allāh [SWT]. Ask your child about the Asma’ul Husna (Good names) that they learnt today.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Allāh [SWT] is our Creator and loves us
- We should also show our love for Allāh [SWT]

SECTION 1

Allāh [SWT] is our Creator and loves us a lot! How do we know that Allāh [SWT] loves us? He has given us wonderful air to breathe and the life to live every day. Allāh [SWT] has given us wonderful parents to take care of us, and so much more!

Can you count Allāh [SWT]’s blessings on your finger? We can’t!

Let’s try and count a few. Can you name five blessings that Allāh [SWT] has given you?

We should also show our love for Allāh [SWT], and how can we do that?

The Holy Prophet [S] was told to tell his followers that if they love Allāh [SWT] they should follow him and listen to his teachings. We must obey Allāh [SWT] and listen to what He has told the Prophet [S] to teach us.

We obey Allāh [SWT] by doing the things that He would love for us to do. We should always remember to thank Him by offering Ṣalāh, being kind to our parents, and respecting our teachers and those around us.

We also obey Allāh [SWT] by not doing things that Allāh [SWT] doesn’t like for us to do. We should stay away from arguing with our brothers and sisters, and being naughty.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

How can we show our love for Allāh [SWT]? What are some of the blessings He has given us?
Al-ḥamdu lillāh, we are Muslims and we follow the religion of Islam which teaches us to love Allāh [SWT] and obey what He asks for us to do.

Allāh [SWT] says in the Qurʾān “Indeed the religion with Allāh is Islam” which also means we must understand the teachings of Islam that make Allāh [SWT] happy.

Allāh [SWT] sent 124,000 Prophets, from the first being Prophet Ādam [A] to the last, Prophet Muḥammad [S] and all of them taught the people to believe in and obey and worship one God, Allāh [SWT].

Allāh [SWT] Loves us so much and has given us many things, that we want to do all the things that will make him happy with us and for us to be good people so that He is pleased with us and proud of us.

Every morning we should think to ourselves that we want to be good today so that Allāh [SWT] is pleased with me. During the day, before I do anything I should think to myself “Allāh [SWT] is watching me, will He be pleased if I do this action?”

If the answer is yes, then we should do it because we want to please Allāh [SWT]. If the answer is no, then we should not do it.

We must also always remember to thank Allāh [SWT] for all the blessings he has given us.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Uṣūl al-dīn are the roots of religion
- The five Uṣūl al-dīn

SECTION 1

Uṣūl al-dīn are the roots of religion. Every tree that we see outside is made up of roots, and branches. In the same way, the religion of Islam is like a tree, made up of roots and branches.

The roots of a tree are extremely important, if in a tree, the branches were to be chopped off, the tree will still live and the branches will slowly grow back, but if the roots of the tree were to be cut, the tree would die.

If we do not understand the roots of religion, which are the uṣūl al-dīn, our faith will also die because we need these basic beliefs in Islam in order to live a successful Islamic life.

Every Muslim has to do their best to understand the uṣūl as best as they can.

What are the uṣūl al-dīn?

The roots of religion are five.

Tawḥīd – Allāh [SWT] is One

ʿAdālah - Allāh [SWT] is Fair and Just

Nubuwwah – Allāh [SWT] has sent 124,000 Prophets to guide us

Imāmah – Allāh [SWT] has sent 12 Imāms as a guide for us

Qiyāmah - The Day of Judgement

Lesson in Practice: At Home

What are the five roots of religion? What does Tawḥīd mean? What does ʿAdālah mean?
Today we are going to look at the first two of the uṣūl.

Tawḥīd means that Allāh [SWT] is One. Allāh talks about Tawḥīd in Sūrat al-Ikhlāṣ

Sūrat al-Ikhlāṣ perfectly describes the qualities of Allāh [SWT], and because it explains that Allāh [SWT] is only One God, we sometimes call this Ṣurah, Sūrat al-Tawḥīd.

Believing in Tawḥīd means to understand that there is only One God whom we worship. He is the One we rely on for everything and He is the one we please and do everything for.

SECTION 2

When we really trust Allāh [SWT], we do not need others or we won’t be scared of others because we know Allāh [SWT] will look after us. ʿAdālah means Allāh [SWT] is Fair and Just.

Muslims believe that Allāh [SWT] is always Fair and Just. He does not do wrong to anyone.

Justice means that Allāh [SWT] keeps a balance between the needs of all His Creation. Allāh [SWT] is All-Wise and knows what is fair and unfair more than anybody else. Everything Allāh [SWT] does is for a reason but we do not know everything that Allāh [SWT] knows.

Sometimes Allāh [SWT] is testing a person to see if he or she will still remain a good Muslim when they lose something. Sometimes Allāh [SWT] wants a person to be patient so that he or she can be stronger and go to Jannah (paradise).

The justice of Allāh [SWT] is called ʿAdālah and it is wājib for Muslims to believe that Allāh [SWT] is Just. We must believe that Allāh [SWT] is fair to everyone and He never does anything wrong.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Allāh [SWT] has sent 124,000 Prophets to guide us
- Why did Allāh [SWT] send Prophets?

SECTION 1

Nubuwwah is the belief that Allāh [SWT] has sent 124,000 Prophets to guide us. The last of these Prophets was Prophet Muḥammad [S].

If Allāh [SWT] had just Created us but not sent any messengers to guide us then we would not know how to worship Allāh [SWT] or what He wants us to do and not to do.

Allāh [SWT] chose His Prophets and Messengers from human beings so that they could live amongst us and be our role models.

For example, imagine if we went to a park where there was a nature trail. We want to see all the animals on the nature trail, but we do not know our way. What can we do? We need to get a guide who can show us the way on the nature trail. What kind of person should this guide be?

He should be honest and should know his way. We should be able to trust him and know that he won’t leave us.

In the same way, Allāh [SWT] sent Prophets as guides that we can trust. These were honest people who could show us the right path.

The Prophets knew what made Allāh [SWT] happy as they would receive messages either in their dreams or through Angel Jibrāʾīl. The Prophets could also perform miracles with Allāh [SWT]’s permission so that people would really believe that they were sent by Allāh [SWT].
SECTION 2

For example, Prophet Mūsā [A] and his people crossed the seas which parted into two. Prophet ʿĪsā [A] could cure the sick and help the blind to see again. Prophet Muḥammad [S] put pebbles into his hands which recited the taṣbīḥ of Allāh [SWT].

From the time of Prophet Ādam [A], each Prophet [S] brought the message of Allāh [SWT] in stages. As the people developed, they could understand more and Allāh [SWT] sent Prophets to teach them more.

Our Holy Prophet, Prophet Muḥammad [S] brought the full message of Islam to his people, revealed by Allāh [SWT]. He also brought the special book which was a miracle, called the Qurʾān. It is a miracle because it still exists after 1400 years in the same Arabic language that Allāh [SWT] revealed it to the Prophet [S] in. Nobody can write anything like it!

Our final Prophet [S] is not physically with us; so we should read the Qurʾān as it can be our guide and teach us what is right and wrong.

Allāh [SWT] would speak to the Prophets [S] in different ways. Sometimes the Prophets [S] would see a message from Allāh [SWT] in a dream, other times, even though they would be awake, they would hear words clearly or think thoughts they knew were coming from Allāh [SWT]. Allāh [SWT] also spoke to the Prophets [S] through an angel, like angel Jibrāʾīl.

Some of the Prophets [S] are mentioned in the Holy Qurʾān, like Prophet Ādam [S], Prophet Mūsā [S], Prophet ʿĪsā [S] and others as well.

Now we know that Prophets are there to show us how to be good Muslims and to teach us just like teachers. They are human beings like us, so that we can copy them, and they can be role models for us.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Why did Allāh [SWT] send Prophets? What should we do now that our Holy Prophet [S] is no longer with us?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- What is an Imām and how many are there?
- Who are our Imāms?

SECTION 1

An Imām is a guide and a leader. There are 12 Imāms. When the Holy Prophet [S] was on his deathbed he once again let everyone know that Imām ʿAlī [A] would be the leader after him. Just like the Prophets, the Imāms were the most perfect people of their time in everything.

Prophet Muḥammad [S] laid the religion of Islam for people to follow, and the Imāms looked after the religion and kept spreading the message of Islam and teaching people right and wrong.

Imāms are also chosen by Allāh [SWT]. They do not do things that displease Allāh [SWT] or make Him unhappy. Each of the Imāms sent by Allāh [SWT] shared something special with the people of their time. For example, Imām al-Ḥusayn [A] was given the mission of Karbalā’.

Who are our Imāms?

Our first Imām is Imām ʿAlī Ibn Abī Ṭālib [A]
Our second Imām is Imām al-Ḥasan al-Mujtabā [A]
Our third Imām is Imām al-Ḥusayn [A]
Our fourth Imām is Imām ʿAlī Zayn al-ʿĀbidīn [A]
Our fifth Imām is Imām Muḥammad al-Bāqir [A]
Our sixth Imām is Imām Jaʿfar al-Ṣādiq [A]
Our seventh Imām is Imām Mūsā al-Kāẓim [A]
Our eighth Imām is Imām ʿAlī al-Riḍā [A]
Our ninth Imām is Imām Muḥammad al-Taqī al-Jawād [A]
Our tenth Imām is Imām ʿAlī al-Naqī al-Hadī [A]
Our eleventh Imām is Imām al-Ḥasan al ʿAskarī [A]
Our twelfth Imām, the Imām of our time, is Imām Muḥammad al-Mahdī (may he return to us quickly!)
SECTION 2

Our twelfth Imām is alive and is with us all the time. He guides us, but it is up to us to remember him at all times and to make him happy.

How can we make our Imām happy?

Every night, before we fall asleep, we should take account of what we did that day. Did we do anything that would make our Imām unhappy?

Our Holy Prophet [S] has said that “any Muslim who dies without knowing the Imām of his time has died the death of a non-believer.”

Just like the Prophets [A], the Imāms are chosen by Allāh [SWT]. They are maʿṣūm, meaning they do not commit sin, even by mistake. They are those who have the best akhlāq and are the most knowledgeable of their time and people can ask them whatever they wish.

Just because we cannot see our Imām, does not mean he is not there. We can also ask him anything we wish, and if we are sincere, we will receive the answer.

WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- The fifth of the ṣūl al-dīn is Qiyāmah.
- What does Qiyāmah mean, what is another name for it?

SECTION 1

The fifth of the ṣūl al-dīn is Qiyāmah. This means the Day of Judgement. Another name for the Day of Judgement is Maʿād. Every Muslim must believe that a day will come when everyone will die and a day will come when Allāh [SWT] will bring everybody back to life and judge him or her.

On that day, those people who had faith, and did good deeds in this world, they will enter Jannah (Paradise). Here, they will live forever.

Those who did not believe, and did not have faith, and did not do good deeds, and they also never asked Allāh [SWT] for forgiveness, they will enter Jahannam (the fire of Hell).

There are many different names for the Day of Judgement in the Holy Qurʾān, some of these names are:

Yaum al-Ba’ath – The day of Rising
This name is given because it is the day when everybody from the time of Prophet Ādam [A], will be raised from the dead and will be answerable for their deeds.

Yaum al-Hasrah – The day of Regret
Why does the Holy Qurʾān also refer to this day as the ‘day of Regret’? This is because on this day, there will be people who, when they see the reward for goodness, will wish they had more time in this world to do good. There will be others who wasted time in this world, and upon answering for how they spent their time, they will regret their records.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Who are our 12 Imāms? Who is the Imām of our time? How can we make the Imām of our time happy? Ask your child to provide some examples.
Yaum at-Taghābun – The day of Gain & Loss
This day is also referred to as the day of Gain & Loss because on this day there will be people who will ‘Gain’ thawāb for their good deeds, and there will be people who will have ‘losses’ and will be ashamed of what they could have earned, but chose not to, in this world.

Al-Hāqqah – The Truth
This day is also called ‘The Truth’ because it is definitely going to happen. There are many people in this world who do not believe in the Day of Judgement. However, the Holy Qur’ān says that this day will come and those who did not believe will see the truth and then will not be able to avoid it.

Why will there be a Day of Judgement?

There are several reasons for a Day of Judgement.

1. Allāh [SWT] did not create us without a purpose. If he did, it would be like an artist who creates a beautiful painting then ruins it. The purpose of our creation is to live happily forever, but not in this world. This world is a test for us to prepare for our real home.

2. There are some people in this world who have done wrong, and have not been caught, or their punishment for what they did is not a fair punishment. On the Day of Judgement there will be ʿAdālah (Justice) for every single deed no matter how big or small.

How will Allāh [SWT] bring us back to life? He tells us in the Holy Qur’ān that the One who will bring back the dead will be the same One who Created them in the first place.

“There is none in the heavens and the earth but he comes to the All-beneficent as a servant. Certainly He has counted them [all] and numbered them precisely, and each of them will come to Him alone on the Day of Resurrection.” - Sūrat Maryam [19:93-5]
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Recapping on the actions of Wuḍūʾ
- What breaks my Wuḍūʾ

SECTION 1

The mustaḥab actions of wuḍūʾ, along with the wājib actions of wuḍūʾ were covered in Class 3. However, we will look at the wājib actions of wuḍūʾ in more depth and look and which actions break the wuḍūʾ.

1. Niyyah: I am performing wuḍūʾ Qurbatān ilallāh, which means ‘I am performing wuḍūʾ for the pleasure of Allāh [SWT]’ you don’t have to say the niyyah out loudly.

2. Washing your face: Wash your face from where the hair of the head normally grows, all the way down to the chin. Make sure you wipe to area close to your ears. Make sure all visible parts of the face skin are washed. The area you cover in washing your face is the width covered by the thumb and the middle finger when they are spread out. If your face is not washed correctly and any area remains unwashed, the Wuḍūʾ will not be correct and will have to be done again.

You can pour or splash water on your face as many times as you need, but once you start wiping your face with your hands, you should not add more water.

3. Washing your arms: After washing the face, you should wash your right arm, and then your left arm, from the elbow down to the fingertips. Your arms should always be washed from top to bottom. If you wash from down to up, the Wuḍūʾ will not be accepted and will need to be done again. To make sure that the elbow is washed completely, it is okay to wash some of the arm above the elbow as well. There is no limit in how much water you can pour on your arms, but once you start wiping your arm, that is considered one wash.

You can add more water a second time if you need it, and wipe again. You cannot add water a third time. After you have washed your right arm, wash the left arm. Make sure you start wiping from a little above the elbow and that water reaches all sides of the elbow and the arm (inside and outside), all the way down to the fingertips.
4. Wiping (masā) of the head with a wet hand: After washing your left arm, you should wipe the top of your head with the wetness on your right palm, without taking any new water. Move the wet fingers of the right hand from the front quarter of the head all the way up to the edge of the hair.

5. Wiping (masā) of the feet with wet hands: After you have done masā on your head, you should also wipe your feet with the same wet fingers. First wipe the right foot, then wipe your left foot. Wipe from tip of the toes up to the ankle. It is better to wipe with three fingers or the whole palm. For your wuḍūʾ to be correct, you must follow the order and do all the actions without a break or interruption in the middle.

What Breaks my wuḍūʾ?

Our wuḍūʾ can break if:

- We go to the bathroom,
- We pass wind.
- We go to sleep
- We become unconscious.

It is good to do wuḍūʾ before going to sleep at night, before going to the Mosque, and even when you are feeling angry. It is good to stay in wuḍūʾ all the time.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- The wājib rukn and ghayr rukn of ṣalāh
- Preparing ourselves for ṣalāh
- What breaks my ṣalāh?

SECTION 1

Muslims are required to pray 5 times a day. How can we prepare for our ṣalāh?

When we are expecting friends to come over to our house, and they are going to be staying with us, we will prepare. How will we prepare? We will tidy up our room! We will prepare nice toys for our friend to play with and to have a good time.

In the same way, we must also prepare for ṣalāh.

- Our body must be clean
- Our clothes must also be clean and ṭāhir.
- We must know the right time for ṣalāh
- We must perform wuḍū’
- Qiblah should be correct
- The place where we are praying must also be ṭāhir.

The five prayers a day are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ṣalāt al-fajr</th>
<th>The Dawn prayer is prayed early morning before sunrise</th>
<th>2 raka’āt</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ṣalāt al-żuhr</td>
<td>Noon Prayers.</td>
<td>4 raka’āt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ṣalāh al-‘aṣr</td>
<td>Afternoon Prayers – prayed after ṣalāt al-żuhr and before sunset.</td>
<td>4 raka’āt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ṣalāt al-maghrib</td>
<td>Evening prayers. It is prayed soon after sunset</td>
<td>3 raka’āt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ṣalāt al-‘ishā’</td>
<td>Night prayers. It is prayed after ṣalāt al-maghrib and before midnight</td>
<td>4 raka’āt</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
WHAT BREAKS MY ṢALĀH?

There are certain actions which break the ṣalāh, for example, we know that praying ṣalāh without doing ḻuḍū’ is not acceptable.

Actions which break the ṣalāh are:

- Laughing out loud
- Crying for worldly things
- Eating or drinking
- Folding arms intentionally
- Saying “Āmīn” after Sūrat al-Fāṭihah
- Speaking intentionally
- Turning away from qiblah
- Any actions that show you are no longer praying, like clapping
- Leaving out any wājib rukn of ṣalāh
- Doing anything that breaks the ḻuḍū’ (like passing wind)
- Missing an action that you have to be sure about before ṣalāh (like are my clothes “ṭāhir”?)
- Doubts about which rak‘ah you are in

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Quiz your child on what breaks the ṣalāh. You can act out the ṣalāh and do one of the above intentionally and see if they are able to identify it as something that breaks the ṣalāh.

“Say: Surely my prayer, and my sacrifice, and my life, and my death are (all) for Allāh [SWT], the Lord of the Worlds” - Sūrat al-An ām [6:162]
SECTION 3

HOW TO PRAY A 3 RAK’AH SALĀH

A 3-rak’ah salāh is like a two rak’ah salāh except after Tashahhud of the 2nd rak’ah, we do not recite the salām. Instead we stand up for Qiyyām again.

In Qiyyām and during Qirā’ah, instead of reciting Surah al-Hamd and Surah al-Ikhlās, we recite the Tasbihāt al-Arba’a three times. Tasbihāt al-Arba’a is as follows:

سْبِحْاَنَّ اللَّهُ وَالْحَمْدُ للَّهِ وَلَا إِلَى اللَّهِ إِلَّا الْحَمْدُ وَاللهُ أَكْبَرُ

Subhānallāhi wal-Hamdu lillāhi wa Lā Iāha illalāhu wallāhu Akbar!

Then we perform Ruku’, two Sajdahs, Tashahhud and Salām to complete our Salāh.

HOW TO PRAY A 4 RAK’AH SALĀH

A 4-rak’ah salāh is like a 3 rak’ah salāh but instead of reciting Tashahhud and Salām after the 3rd rak’ah, we stand up again for Qiyyām and Qirā’ah and we recite the Tasbihāt al-Arba’a three times again.

Then we perform Ruku’, two Sajdahs, Tashahhud and Salām to complete our Salāh.

Your teacher will help you to pray a two, three and four rak’ah salāh in class or during salāh time.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Assist your child in learning how to pray a 3 Rak’ah and 4 Rak’ah salāh
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- What is taʿqibāt?
- The recitations after our ṣalāh

SECTION 1

Taʿqibāt is the recitation of Qurʾān, duʿāʾ, taṣbīḥ, and ziyārah after we have finished praying our ṣalāh.

The duʿāʾ we recite after each ṣalāh are different, for example:

After praying our fajr ṣalāh, we say that “there is no strength nor power except Allāh [SWT] and He is enough for me! There is no God except Allāh [SWT] and I have put my full trust in Him.”

After praying our zuhr ṣalāh, we ask Allāh [SWT] “not to leave any of our sins unforgiven, or any of my sicknesses without being healed. And allow me to do what makes you happy and from which I can receive your reward.”

After praying our ʿaṣr ṣalāh, we say to Allāh [SWT] that “You are the source from which each and every favour we get and I pray that You forgive me. Give me comfort when times are hard, and make times easy for me when I find them difficult.”

After maghrib ṣalāh we say “Oh Allāh [SWT] save us from the Hellfire, and let us be in Paradise, Heaven, near your Holy Prophet [S].”

After ṭishā ṣalāh we say “Oh Allāh [SWT], I have full knowledge that you know where my sustenance is, while I look for it in the mountains, in the lands and the seas. So please make it easy for me to find, and please do not let me get tired by chasing that which you have not meant for me”
So each du`ā` has a special meaning that we should try and understand so that we can become closer to Allāh [SWT]. We can also recite any sūrah we want after our ṣalāh, to make it special.

The taṣbīḥ that we recite after our ṣalāh is known as the taṣbīḥ of Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A], because her father, the Holy Prophet [S] gave this to her as a present.

After the recitation of the taṣbīḥ we should go into sajdah to thank Allāh [SWT] for all that He has given us and ask for whatever we wish. It is highly recommended to recite shukran lillāh as many times as we can, Thanking Allāh [SWT].

We should also recite ziyārah after our ṣalāh.

What is taʿqibāt? Sit with your child after ṣalāh and read the different du`ā` that are recommended after each prayer. Help him/her learn the basic ziyārah to recite after their ṣalāh.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Understanding the meaning of najāsah and ṭahārah
- How can we make something ṭāhir?

SECTION 1

Najāsah means those things which the Islamic Law says are unclean – because they are always najis, they are called ‘āyn al-najis (they never become pure – ṭāhir)

Najāsah can spread from one place to another, if the najis item is wet and touches something else, or if the place it is put is wet.

For example, a dog is ‘āyn al-najis.

If a man is walking his dog and they walk past you, you do not become najis even though the dog is najis, because the dog did not touch you.

However, if the dog comes and licks your hand, because the dog’s tongue is wet, and it has touched your hand, now your hand is najis and it needs to be made ṭāhir.

What are some of the ‘āyn al-najāsah?

- Urine and Stool
- Blood
- Pig
- Dog

“He (Allāh) is the one who sends the winds as good news before His mercy; and We send down pure water from the cloud.” – Sūrat al-Furqān [25:48]
How can I make my hand ṭāhir if it is has been licked by a dog?

There are 12 different MUṬAHHIRĀT (things that can make something ṭāhir) – the most common of these is water.

Water can be PURE or it can be MIXED WITH SOMETHING

PURE WATER is called MUṬLAQ MIXED WATER is called MUḌĀF

If the water is pure (muṭlaq), it has not changed in its colour, taste or smell. It CAN make a najis thing ṭāhir. For example, tap water is muṭlaq water.

If the water is mixed (muḍāf), it has been mixed. It CANNOT make a najis thing ṭāhir and it also becomes najis when it touches the najis thing. For example, lemon juice is muḍāf water because it has changed in colour, taste and smell. If your hand is najis and the lemon juice touches your hand, it also becomes najis.

Before we get ready for ṣalāh we have to make sure our clothes are clean but also that they are ṭāhir.

When something najis comes on our clothes, there is a special way that we must wash it, so the najāsah goes away. It isn’t like normal dirt where we just wash it off.

To make our body or clothes ṭĀHIR when it has become najis with urine, we must first remove the najāsah by washing once, and then we must wash the area a second time. In total we must wash it three times.

To make our body or clothes ṭĀHIR when it has become najis with blood, we must first remove the najāsah by washing once, and then washing once again. In total we must wash it two times.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Help your child understand the difference between MUṬLAQ and MUḌĀF. What are some of the ʿāyn al-najāsah?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- What is ḥijāb?
- Understanding ḥijāb for girls and ḥijāb for boys

SECTION 1
What is ḥijāb?

Allāh [SWT] has made everyone beautiful. When we grow up and become young adults, we will be even more beautiful. Allāh [SWT] does not like boys looking at the beauty of girls and admiring them, or girls staring at GHAYR-MAḤRAM boys.

What does ghayr-maḥram mean? Our close relatives, like our siblings are our ‘maḥram’ in Islam. The opposite gender that are not related to us are ‘ghayr-maḥram’.

Sometimes, we want to stare at those who are ghayr-maḥram, or sometimes ghayr-maḥram want to stare at us. This can also lead to other sins. This is why it is not allowed for us to admire the beauty of someone who is not maḥram to us or to look at them while they are not dressed properly.

Islamic teaches boys and girls not to show off their beauty and to be modest.

Ḥijāb comes in many forms. One of the forms is to cover ourselves properly so strangers do not look at our bodies. For girls, the scarf is also part of ḥijāb. When a girl becomes bālighah, it is wājib for her to cover all her hair and body in front of ghayr-maḥram. Bālighah girls and women do not have to wear ḥijāb in front of other women, or in front close relatives, including brothers, fathers, uncles (mum’s brothers and dad’s brothers) and grandfathers. However, we should still dress respectfully.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Where can we learn besides the Madressa? What are some of the things that are important for us to remember?
Dressing modestly means not wearing clothes that are too tight on the body.

Hijāb and Modesty is important in Islam as people see us for who we really are.

We do not want people to judge us as shameless, and we would like to be treated with respect. Which is why, at all times, we should dress properly and smartly so that we are seen as respectful.

For boys, there is also ḥijāb; and that is not to stare and admire girls whether they are wearing ḥijāb or not. The responsibility of ḥijāb is for both the men and the women.

Once a blind man by the name of ʿAbd Allah came to the house of the Holy Prophet [S]. Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] was home and went into her room when she saw ʿAbd Allah was coming. She later told the Holy Prophet [S] that she went away because even though ʿAbd Allah was blind and could not see her, she was not blind and could see him, which was not right.

"Say to the believing men that they cast down their gaze and be modest. That is pure for them. And Allāh [SWT] is aware of what they do. And say to the believing women that they cast down their looks and be modest [...]" – Sūrat al-Nūr [24:30-31]
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Egypt at the time of Prophet Mūsā [A]
- Prophet Mūsā [A] lived in the Palace of Fir’awn

SECTION 1

Many years after Prophet Yūsuf [A] passed away in Egypt, there was a man who was not very nice, by the name of Fir’awn, who became the king in Egypt.

During the time of Fir’awn, many of the people living in Egypt were not actually Egyptian. They were the friends and relatives of Prophet Ya’qūb [A] and Prophet Yūsuf [A] who had moved to Egypt after Prophet Yusūf [A] had become the governor there. These people were known as the Banī Isrā’īl.

Fir’awn saw that there were a lot of Banī Isrā’īl in Egypt and he did not like it. He decided to make the Banī Isrā’īl his slaves, and made them work for him, so that they would never have power in Egypt.

He would make them work very hard and gave them very little food and water. He was not a very nice master to the slaves.

As Fir’awn talked to the Banī Isrā’īl, he learned that they believed a boy would be born soon who would be their saviour and will destroy Fir’awn.

Fir’awn became scared and angry when he heard this and decided that he would not let this happen. From that day on, every time he heard a boy was born in the Banī Isrā’īl tribe, he would order his men to kill the child.

The child that Banī Isrā’īl were waiting for was Prophet Mūsā [A]. It was Allāh [SWT]’s plan that Prophet Mūsā [A] would save the Banī Isrā’īl and fight against Fir’awn.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Why did Fir’awn order baby boys to be killed? What was the miracle of Prophet Mūsā [A]? Where did he live?
Soon, Prophet Mūsā [A] was born, and his mother was worried that the soldiers of Fir‘awn would come and kill her son. Allāh [SWT] guided the mother of Prophet Mūsā [A] to put her baby in a basket and to then put the basket in the river.

As Prophet Mūsā [A] began to float in the basket down the river, his mother sent his older sister to follow the basket and to see where it went. Allāh [SWT] made the basket float down the river and stop outside Fir‘awn’s palace. Fir‘awn’s wife, Sayyidah Āsiyah, was a very good woman and loved Allāh [SWT].

When she saw the basket, she opened it and saw this young boy. She decided she would keep this baby and raise him as her own. She told Fir‘awn that she loved this child and that he could not kill this little boy.

Fir‘awn was looking everywhere for this child who would grow up and fight him, while Prophet Mūsā [A] was growing up in his own palace! Not once did he realise that the boy being raised in his palace was the special Prophet Mūsā [A] – how amazing is the miracle of Allāh [SWT]?

“so We sent this inspiration to the mother of Moses: “Suckle (your child), but when you have fears about him, cast him into the river, but fear not and do not grieve: for We shall restore him to you, and We shall make him one of Our messengers.”” - Sūrat al-Qaṣaṣ (28:7)
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Sayyidah Maryam [A] is the mother of Prophet ʿĪsā [A]
- Prophet ʿĪsā [A] and an introduction to his life

SECTION 1

Sayyidah Maryam [A], the mother of Prophet ʿĪsā [A] was a very pious lady who used to spend a lot of her time worshipping. Allāh [SWT] would send Sayyidah Maryam [A] special food from Jannah.

The angel Jibrāʾīl once visited Sayyidah Maryam [A] and told her that Allāh [SWT] had chosen her from all the women in the world for a special miracle. She would give birth to a Prophet of Allāh [SWT] – a great Prophet!

Sayyidah Maryam [A] asked the angel Jibrāʾīl how it would be possible for her to have a child when she is not married? The angel Jibrāʾīl responded that nothing was impossible for Allāh [SWT]. Allāh [SWT] can say ‘Be!’ and it will become.

By the miracle of Allāh [SWT], Sayyidah Maryam [A] gave birth to Prophet ʿĪsā [A]. People started talking and saying that Sayyidah Maryam [A] was not a good woman because she had a baby and was not married. Allāh [SWT] told Sayyidah Maryam [A] not to say anything.

Prophet ʿĪsā [A] spoke miraculously from the cradle saying “I am a servant of Allāh [SWT]. I have been given a Book and Allāh [SWT] has made me a Prophet. He has made me blessed, wherever I may be, and He has commanded me to Prayer and to give Ṣadaqah as long as I live, and to be good to my mother, and He has not made me harsh...”

This miracle of Allāh [SWT] is mentioned in the Holy Qurʾān. The people were so shocked to hear a baby speak from the cradle.
When Prophet Īsā [A] grew up, Allāh [SWT] revealed the Injīl to him. He began to preach and share knowledge with the people around him and taught them to worship Allāh [SWT].

Prophet Īsā [A] had some very special miracles given to him by Allāh [SWT]. He could bring the dead back to life, he could cure the sick, he could walk on water, and he could also create birds out of clay and blow life into them so that they could really fly.

He lived a very simple life; his clothes were simple and he ate very simple food. He would go to different places, telling people to prepare themselves for the hereafter.

He also gave people the good news that after him there would come a final prophet, who would be the best of Allāh [SWT]’s messengers and his name would be Aḥmad – another name of Prophet Muḥammad [S].

Prophet Īsā [A] is one of the four prophets who are still alive today.

Lesson in Practice: At Home
Ask your child to tell you the story of Prophet Īsā [A]’s birth.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Sayyidah Khadijah [A] and her life
- Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] and her love for her father

SECTION 1

In the holy Household of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad [S], there were two very important women. The first of these was Sayyidah Khadijah [A]. Sayyidah Khadijah [A] was the first wife of the Holy Prophet [S] and the mother of Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A]. Do you know the story of Sayyidah Khadijah [A]?

Sayyidah Khadijah [A] was the daughter of a very wealthy trader. When her father died, Sayyidah Khadijah [A] continued his business of trading. Soon, she was one of the richest traders in Makkah.

Abū Ṭālib [A] knew Sayyidah Khadijah [A] and suggested to her that she should send Prophet Muḥammad [S] as a representative to Syria for her business. The Holy Prophet [S] was so honest in his work that Sayyidah Khadijah [A] saw her business was doing better than before.

She was so impressed by the Prophet [S], that soon after, Sayyidah Khadijah [A] requested a friend to send a marriage proposal on her behalf to the Holy Prophet [S] and the Prophet accepted.

After her marriage, Sayyidah Khadijah [A] did not do much business, but she was still very wealthy. Sayyidah Khadijah [A] would help the poor, the widows, the orphans, the sick, and disabled, with her wealth.

At the age of 40, the Holy Prophet [S] received his first revelation and was told to start announcing to the people that he was a prophet and guide from Allāh [SWT]. Sayyidah Khadijah [A] was the first woman to accept the message of Islam. The wealth of Sayyidah Khadijah [A] helped save Islam.

Sayyidah Khadijah [A] and the Holy Prophet [S] had two sons, Qāsim and Ṭāhir, who both died when they were young. The Prophet [S] was very sad. When Imām ʿAlī [A] was born, he looked after him like his own son.

Lesson in Practice: At Home
Who were Sayyidah Khadijah [A] and Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A]? How did they help the Holy Prophet [S] and the mission of Islam?
Seven years before Sayyidah Khadijah [A] passed away, and five years after the Holy Prophet [S] had announced his Prophethood, Allāh [SWT] blessed them with a daughter on the 20th of Jamādī al-Ākhar. She was named Fāṭimah. Nobody wanted to help Sayyidah Khadijah [A] when Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] was about to be born; but Allāh [SWT] sent four women from Paradise to help her. These were: Hawwa (the wife of Prophet Adam [A]), Asiya (the mother of Prophet Mūsā [A]), Umm Kulthum (the sister of Prophet Mūsā [A]), and Maryam (the mother of Prophet ʿĪsā [A]).

From a young age, Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] knew that her father was a very special man and that he was the Messenger of Allāh [SWT]. When people would throw stones at the Holy Prophet [S], Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] would wipe his wounds when he returned home. The Holy Prophet [S] loved Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] so much; he called her ‘Umm Abīhā’ which means ‘The mother of her father’.

After Sayyidah Khadijah [A] passed away, Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] was like a mother to the Holy Prophet [S]. Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] loved her father more than anybody in the world. The Holy Prophet [S] said “Fāṭimah is a part of me, whoever makes her angry, makes me angry, and whoever makes her happy, makes me happy.”

When Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] was old enough to get married, the Holy Prophet [S] arranged for her to marry Imām ʿAlī [A] on the guidance of Allāh [SWT], asking Allāh [SWT] to protect them as they were the two people he loved the most. When the Holy Prophet [S] passed away, Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] cried a lot, as the people troubled her and Imām ʿAlī [A]. They took Imām ʿAlī [A]’s rights and her house door was burnt, killing Mūḥsin, the child that was in her stomach and not born yet.

Two or three months after the Holy Prophet [S] passed away, Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A] passed away, leaving behind four children: Sayyidah Zaynab, Sayyidah Umm Kulthūm, Imām al-Ḥasan [A] and Imām al-Ḥusayn [A].
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- There are five Eids
- The names of the Five Eids and why they are important and joyous days for Muslims

SECTION 1

Eid is a joyous and happy time for Muslims all around the world. In Islam we celebrate Eid as the happy festival which comes every year.

In the Holy Qur’ān, Prophet Īsā [A] asks Allāh [SWT] to send food from the heavens which should be a feast, and the word ‘Eid’ is used. This was because his followers wanted a miracle to increase their faith and to always celebrate that occasion with joy.

We have five types of Eid in one year.

The first of these is Eid al-Jumu’ah.
Jumu’ah means Friday, and for Muslims, Friday is a religious day.

The Holy Prophet [S] has said that prayers and worship on jumu’ah are better than prayers and worship on any other day.

There are certain actions that are highly recommended on this day, like doing the ghusl of Jumu’ah, cutting our nails, visiting the graveyard, and going to the mosque and praying together.

The second Eid is Eid al-Ḥajj. This is also known as Eid al-‘Adha, the Eid of Sacrifice. This is on the 10th of Dhūl-Ḥijjah and marks the end of the Ḥajj for Muslims.

This Eid specifically honours the sacrifice of Prophet Ismā’īl [A] made by Prophet Ibrāhīm [A].

The third Eid is Eid al-Fitr. This is the Eid after the Holy Month of Ramaḍān. It is on the 1st of Shawwāl every year. Fitr means ‘to break’ and marks the end of fasting. It is a happy occasion because through our prayers in the Holy Month of Ramaḍān, Allāh [SWT] may have forgiven our sins.
Allāh [SWT] has made a specific charity wājib on every family on this day to help the poor people who don’t have money to feed themselves.

The fourth Eid is Eid al-Ghadīr. This is on the 18th of Dhū’l-Ḥijjah - the day when the Holy Prophet [S] stopped at Ghadīr Khumm when returning from his farewell Ḥajj. Here he declared that Imām ʿAlī [A] would be his successor and a leader for the Muslims after he passes away. He also told the people that he was leaving two very special things; the Qur’ān and the Ahl al-Bayt [A].

The fifth Eid is Eid al-Mubāhilah. The Holy Prophet [S] had sent many letters to different countries, inviting them to Islam. This is the Eid when the Holy Prophet [S], along with Imām ʿAlī [A], Sayyidah Fāṭimah [A], Imām al-Ḥasan [A], and Imām al-Ḥusayn [A], met with the Christians of Najrān to pray to Allāh [SWT] to punish those who were not speaking the truth.

On the 24th of Dhū’l-Ḥijjah, the Muslims met with the Christians. When the Christians saw the light shining from the face of the Holy Prophet [S] and his family, they began to tremble. They backed away realising that if the Holy Prophet [S] prayed to Allāh [SWT], they would be punished.

Eid is a time for sharing and giving and being joyous. We should remember those around the world who do not have what we have.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Ask your child to name the five eids. Help him/her understand the importance of each Eid and why we celebrate them.
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- Islam does not like people who are lazy and do not work hard
- Allāh [SWT] helps those who help themselves.

SECTION 1

Islam does not like people who are lazy and those who do not work hard. There are some people who are very lazy and do not work for themselves but expect others to do their work for them.

Allāh [SWT] has promised that he will help those that help themselves. This means that we should not beg to others, and only ask from Allāh [SWT], and try our best at all times.

A true Muslim has to work harder than others. Most people work for this life; to provide food for their families, and a comfortable home to live in. However, a true Muslim has to work hard to also collect bonus points for the hereafter. In every action, we should think of how we can also build for our hereafter as well. For example, when we go out to work, if we have the intention to feed our families then we are also getting thawāb for our work.

Working hard requires us to always remember Allāh [SWT] and to be thoughtful of His Creations around us. Once, the 6th Imām, Imām Ja’far al-Ṣādiq [A] was working very hard in the fields.

A man passed and said to him, “How is it that you are working so hard for this world, instead of worshipping Allāh [SWT]?” The Imām replied, “Doing hard work that is ḥalāl is one of the best forms of worship and Allāh [SWT] would reward a person who died whilst working hard to help himself and his family.”

Islam encourages us to go out and work hard and not only to sit at home. If we don’t work hard and expect others to do work for us, we are being lazy.

Laziness means we are avoiding work and not putting effort into what needs to be done. A true and faithful Muslim will never be lazy; he will always be trying hard to help himself and those around him.
Sitting around all day and doing nothing useful, like watching too much television, sleeping too much or playing computer games so much that we do not have time for anything else, is being lazy.

If we have finished all our work, we should try finding an interest or hobby. We can read books, recite the Qur’ān or even learn more about Islamic history. We can join book clubs, study circles or even participate in some sports. We should try our best to live a balanced life and do as much for our hereafter and learn more about Islam, as well as just going to school and working hard for this life.

Remember: Allāh [SWT] will help those who help themselves.

STORY TIME

‘ABD ALLĀH AND THE FIREWOOD

‘Abd Allāh sat down feeling hopeless because he could not find any means of providing food and support for his family. His wife noticed how sad he was and said to him, ‘Why don’t you go to Rasulullāh (s) and ask him to help us with some money?’

So ‘Abd Allāh plucked the courage and set out to meet Rasulullāh (s) and to ask for help. Before he could meet Rasulullāh (s), he heard Rasulullāh (s) saying: ‘Whoever asks us, we will give him. But one who tries to help himself, Allāh helps him.’ So ‘Abd Allāh never said a word and went back home hiding his problem. But his poverty forced him to go again to Rasulullāh (s) and ask for help. Again he heard Rasulullāh (s) saying the same thing as before. Once again, ‘Abd Allāh kept quiet and went back home. But soon he felt he had to go and ask for help.

So on the third day, he stood up determined that he would tell Rasulullāh (s) of his problem. But again he heard the same hadith. This time however, when he heard the words, ‘Allāh helps the person who tries to help himself’, they had a different effect on him. Instead of feeling hopeless, ‘Abd Allāh felt as if he had just understood the key to unlocking all his problems.
‘Abd Allāh now refused to beg or ask for help. He began thinking how strong he was and what he could do with his own hands without asking someone else for help!!

‘What work can I do?’ he began asking himself. Then he noticed that everyone needs firewood everyday but the wood is not easily available and has to be brought from the mountains and the shrubs in the desert. So he decided he would chop wood and sell it as firewood. But ‘Abd Allāh did not have any tools to chop wood and he could not afford to buy any. He remembered he had a friend who had an axe. So he went to his friend and asked him if he could borrow the axe to chop wood.

When ‘Abd Allāh got to the desert, he was surprised to see how far one dead tree was from the other and how far he would have to carry the heavy wood back to the city to sell it. The sun was also very hot and the sand would sometimes blow into his eyes. But every time ‘Abd Allāh remembered his hungry children and family, he would gain courage to work and he would chop the wood and walk long distances carrying them.

As the sun began going down, ‘Abd Allāh had to rush back before the market places would close and people would go back home. With all the strength he had left after chopping the wood, ‘Abd Allāh carried the logs to the market and began shouting at the top of his voice: ‘Wood!... wood!... firewood!.... lots of firewood!’

People began buying from him and ‘Abd Allāh began seeing the reward of his hard work and tasting the pleasure of struggling with his own hands. His wife could not believe her eyes when she saw ‘Abd Allāh coming home with food for dinner that night. The next morning ‘Abd Allāh woke up very early and went out again to chop more wood. Soon soon he was able to return the axe and buy a new one of his own.

After sometime, ‘Abd Allāh became rich. He bought a camel and hired two people to help him carry the wood from the desert. ‘Abd Allāh became an example for anyone willing to work hard for himself and how not to beg or depend on anyone except Allāh [SWT].

Lesson in Practice: At Home

What can we learn from the story of ‘Abd Allāh? What should we do if we have finished all our work, so that we are not lazy?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- It is very important for us to have good friends.
- What should we remember when choosing our friends?

SECTION 1

Islam talks about the importance of having good friends. After our own family and relatives, the most important people in our lives are our friends. What kind of friends should we have?

Our friends are usually closer to us in age, and like to do a lot of the things that we also like to do. They have similar interests and goals as us.

Imām ʿAlī [A] says “Friends are like one soul in different bodies.”

Our friends have a lot of influence over us. What does this mean? They can encourage us to be good and righteous, or they can encourage us to sin and tell us that nobody is watching so it is okay.

The influence of friends can be either positive or negative. When we hang out with friends who have bad manners and do not follow good teachings, they can influence us negatively. People will see us hanging around with those who are rude, who don’t have respect, who say bad words, and will judge that we are also like that because of the company we keep.

Prophet Sulaymān [A] once said “Do not judge a person until you see what kind of friends he spends time with. A friend is known by the company he keeps.”

The Qurʿān teaches us that some people will stand on the Day of Judgment in regret, wishing they had different friends and did not hang around in bad company, because had they been in good company, they could have gone to Paradise forever instead of going to the Hellfire.
There will also be some people on that day who will go to Paradise because they were wise and strong and chose good friends. The Holy Prophet [S] has taught us that it is better to have no friends at all, and be alone, than to have sinful friends.

We should remember the following when choosing our friends:

1) Keep a friend who is understanding of your beliefs and supports you in practicing your faith.
2) Keep a friend who encourages you to be good and discourages you from doing bad things.
3) Keep a friend who reminds you of God and serve His creation.
4. Keep a friend who loves his family and respects them and encourages us to do the same
5. Keep friends who are hard-working and share with us.

Imām Zayn al-ʿĀbidīn [A] has advised us not to be friends with the following:

1. Those who lie, because they will take us away from the right path
2. Wrongdoers, because their friendship cannot be trusted
3. Stingy people, because they will not be there for us when us need them
4. Foolish, because they will try to help us but because they are not wise they will end up hurting us instead.

Islam emphasises for us to have good friends, because they will influence how we talk, what we eat, how we dress, how we talk to our parents, the values that we have, and our goals in life.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Ask your child about his/her friends. What do they feel are good qualities about their friends? Would they also do anything for their friends? Does his/her friend have the qualities mentioned above?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- When we make mistakes or disobey Allāh [SWT], we ask for His forgiveness.
- We should also be forgiving to others.

SECTION 1

When we make mistakes or disobey Allāh [SWT], we ask Him to forgive us and pardon our mistakes. We tell Allāh [SWT] that we are truly sorry and ask for a second chance.

We should do our best not to sin, but also always ask for forgiveness as we are still learning and will make mistakes. When we ask Allāh [SWT] for forgiveness we should remember the following:

- We should truly regret what we have done and really mean it when we say sorry
- We should apologise sincerely and feel shameful for the sin that we have committed
- We should Promise to Allāh [SWT] that we will never repeat the sin and obey Allāh [SWT]’s commands
- We should ask Allāh [SWT] to be Merciful to us

We always ask Allāh [SWT] to judge us with His Mercy and not His Justice. What is the difference?

Once there was a man who was so sure that he had led a good life that he used to pray to Allāh [SWT] that he should be judged with His Justice and not with His Mercy.

One night that man had a dream that it was the Day of Judgment and in front of him was a scale with all his good deeds on one side and on the other side was an apple. What amazed the man was that the side with the apple was so much heavier than the side with all the good deeds. When the man asked why there was an apple there, he was told that once he had gone to the shops and tasted an apple to see how sweet it was, intending to buy it if it was to his liking, but he had not asked the permission of the shop owner.
FORGIVENESS
AND ITS IMPORTANCE

As that man had asked Allāh [SWT] to judge him with His Justice that one small apple outweighed all his good deeds.

When we hurt other people, we also say “sorry” and ask them for forgiveness. In the same way, it is important for us to also forgive others as well as asking for forgiveness. Sometimes people do wrong to us and hurt us, but we must remember that Allāh [SWT] loves those who are kind and forgiving like Him instead of getting angry and upset. Not everybody hurts us on purpose.

Imām ‘Alī [A] says that true forgiveness is when somebody is sorry and you can be upset or angry with them, or hurt them back for what they did, but instead you choose not to, and you forgive them. That is also showing true courage.

STORY TIME

MĀLIK AL-ASHTAR AND THE PASSER-BY

Malik al-Ashtar was the commander of Imām Ali (‘a)’s army and was one of the bravest and most feared soldiers in battle. He was very tall and strong. He loved to imitate his teacher, Imām Ali (‘a), in all his behaviour and manners.

One day, Mālik al-Ashtar was passing by the market in Kufa when one of the shopkeepers decided to make fun of him and threw a hazelnut at Mālik. Then he waited a little to see what this passer-by will do. The people in the marketplace were surprised to see what this man had done.

But Mālik al-Ashtar did not care about what this shopkeeper had done. He did not even look back or pay any attention to what the shopkeeper had done and continued walking on until he disappeared in the crowd of people. As he walked he just looked down with humility. What was Mālik al-Ashtar thinking? What was going on in his mind?
One of the other shopkeepers in the market said to this shopkeeper, ‘Do you know who the man that you threw the hazelnut at was?’ ‘No,’ said the man, ‘he was just a passer-by like all the other passers-by’.

No, he was not,’ said the other shopkeeper. ‘That was Mālik al-Ashtar, the follower of Amir al-Mu’minin Imām Ali (‘a) and the commander of his army.’

‘Was this really the same Mālik al-Ashtar from whom even the lions tremble in fear and the bravest of warriors flee from him in battle?’ asked the man in disbelief.

‘Yes, that was him,’ replied the other shopkeeper. The shopkeeper ran after Mālik al-Ashtar to apologize to him but he could not find him because Mālik had disappeared in the crowd and was now far away. But the shopkeeper kept asking about him until he was told that Mālik had gone to the masjid. The man then started looking for Mālik in the masjid and saw him praying to Allāh.

When Mālik finished praying, the man fell at his feet and wanted to kiss them and beg for forgiveness because he thought the commander of the Muslim army would punish him severely because of what he did to him in the marketplace.

But Mālik moved his feet away and held the man’s hands and asked him, ‘what is wrong?!!’

The shopkeeper said, ‘I am very sorry because of what I did at the marketplace. I am the one who threw a hazelnut at you to make fun of you but I have come to ask for your forgiveness.’

Mālik replied him politely and in a beautiful manner, ‘Do not worry. It is not a problem. I only came to the masjid to pray to Allāh to forgive you… you are free to go and I have no hatred for you in my heart.’

Lesson in Practice: At Home

What can we learn from the story of Mālik al-Ashtar? Ask your child if he/she has ever found it hard to forgive someone for hurting them? How did they feel after they forgave that person?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- The qualities of Imam 'Ali al-Naqi [A]
- Imam 'Ali al-Naqi [A] and the difficulties of the Caliph at his time

SECTION 1

Our tenth Imam, Imam 'Ali al-Naqi [A] was born on the 15th of Dhūl-Ḥijjah, 212 years after the hijrah of the Prophet [S] to the city of Madina. His father is the ninth Imam, Imam Muhammad Al-Taqī [A], and his mother was a very pious lady by the name of Samānah.

Imam 'Ali al-Naqi [A] was eight years old when his father passed away. He has many titles, some of which are: al-Murtadā, al-Hādī, Al-Naqī, al-Ālim, and al-Faqīh.

Of these, the most popular was al-Hādī which means 'the guide’ and al-Naqī which means ‘the pure’.

The Tenth Imam [A] lived a very contented life and often quoted from Imam 'Alī [A] saying, ‘the one whose greatest concern is the Ākhirah (Hereafter), he will be content with his life even without wealth’.

The Caliph at the time of the tenth Imam [A] tried to make sure that the Imam had no access to any wealth or luxuries. He kept the Imam under house arrest and watched his every move.

Imam ‘Alī al-Naqī [A] lived a simple lifestyle in a room that had no furniture. There was a straw prayer mat for his Ṣalāh. He would spend a lot of time reading the Qurʾān and reflecting on the meaning of the verses.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

How did the Caliph try to tempt the tenth Imam? What did the tenth Imam do with what the Caliph gave him?
The tenth Imām [A] warmly welcomed people. He loved to help the poor people. Sometimes, the Caliph would send money to the tenth Imām [A] to see what he would do with it, but the Imām would distribute all of it to the poor and needy.

The tenth Imām [A] was ordered to move to Sāmarrah by the Caliph Mutawakkil. He went with his son, Imām Ḥasan al-ʿAskarī [A], his family members and some of his followers.

No matter how hard Mutawakkil tried to harm the Imām, the personality and great akhlāq of the Imām caused people to love him and be humble towards him as he was towards them.

The Imām has said: “People in this world are ranked by their wealth and money, and in the hereafter by their āʿmāl and deeds.”
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

- The qualities of Imām Hasan al-ʿAskarī [A]
- ‘We were not created to play’.

SECTION 1

Imām Hasan al-ʿAskarī [A] was born on the 8th Rabīʿ al-Ākhar, 232 years after Hijrah. His father is the tenth Imām, Imām ʿAlī al-Naqī [A], and his mother was a pure and noble woman by the name of Sawsan.

From a very young age, the Imām taught people not to waste time.

One day, when he was a young boy and he was walking past a group of other boys who were playing, a man asked him, ‘do you want to play with the other boys your age?’

And Imām Hasan al-ʿAskarī [A] replied the man, ‘we were not created to play’. Then the Imām recited the following ayah of the Qurʾān:

“We did not create the sky and the earth and whatever is between them for play.” – Sūrat al-Anbiyāʾ [21:16]

Imām Ḥasan ʿAskarī [A] spent the first 22 years of his life under the care of his father. He had moved with his father to Sāmarrāh.

After, during his Imāmah, he was imprisoned time and time again because Mutawakkil was scared of how many people would begin to follow him and the great influence he would have.

The guard of the prison, Ṣāliḥ, told Mutawakkil that he had put two of his worst men in charge of troubling the Imām while he was in prison, but the Imām was so influential that they became the best of people and were now worshipping Allāh [SWT] and spending a lot of time in prayer.
Many years later, there was a lot of unsettled tension in Sāmarrāh. This was the time that the Holy 12th Imām was born. There were many who had heard that a saviour will be born and that he will be the 12th after the Holy Prophet [S]. This was why the birth of the 12th Imām was kept a secret.

For his close friends and followers, Imām Ḥasan al-ʿAskarī [A] told them and even showed them his son and said to them that he will be the next leader and guide after him.

Imām Ḥasan al-ʿAskarī [A] tried to prepare the Shīʿah for the final Imām and the Ghaybah – when people would not know where he is.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Imām Ḥasan al-ʿAskarī [A] lived a simple life and taught us one key lesson. What was that key lesson?
WHAT I WANT TO LEARN:

• The shorter hiding of the Holy Imām [A]
• The four deputies during the shorter hiding

SECTION 1

A lot of people ask ‘why do we need an Imām?’

Some people say that the Holy Qurʾān is enough to guide us and that we don’t need an Imām. Some say that he is in hiding so how is he helping us?

We know that the Imām is helping us, and that we definitely need him. Even though there are millions of Muslims today, some still disagree on what the message of the Qurʾān is, and for that reason, we need someone who can tell us the exact meaning of the Qurʾān and the message of the Qurʾān.

We also need somebody who can bring all the people together, so that they do not fight. Just like our eyes, ears, hands, and legs are useful, but depend on the brain to instruct them, we need an Imām to make sure the Qurʾān, and all Islamic teachings are understood and followed properly.

When the Imām will come, he will need individuals who are prepared to assist and help him. Will we be one of those individuals?

If the answer is ‘yes’ then we need to do our best to prepare ourselves so that when the Imām does come, we are ready to answer him and be a part of his army that will establish true Islam and peace.

Lesson in Practice: At Home

Why is there a need for an Imām? What can we do to prepare for the Imām?
In everything we do, we should remember our Imām. We should always ask ourselves if we are contributing to the mission of our Imām or if we are the ones who are adding more trouble and making the Imām sad?

We should try to speak about our Imām and the Maʿṣūmīn [A] and Islam, to our friends and family and help each other prepare for the Imām.

When we hear the names of any of the 14 Maʿṣūmīn [A], we should ask Allāh [SWT] to send His blessings on them by reciting the Salawāt.

But remember that when we mention the name of Imām Muḥammad al-Mahdī (may he come to us quickly!) then we must show him an even more special respect.

We should:
• Bow our heads a little
• Say ‘Allāhumma ʿAjjil Farajahu’ – This means ‘O Allāh! Make his return quicker!’

We all look forward to the day that Imām al-Mahdī (May he come to us quickly!) returns and establishes peace and justice and true Islam all over the world.

We look forward to the times when human beings around the world are not fighting and are not at war, but love towards each other.

We should always pray for the return of our Imām in our lifetime and hope that he will come before we die.

Allāh [SWT] is the All-Wise and All-Knowing and can do the best for everybody in this world.
What if a school had two principals? Who would the students listen to and obey?

What if the world had two Gods, would there be any order? What if one God would bring out the Sun when the other brings out the Moon? People would not know when to sleep or wake up!

Or maybe one God would make rivers and the other God would make the Sun so hot that the rivers would dry up!

What if each God made His own moon and the moons collided with each other?

So the whole world has only one God. That is why everything is so well planned, organized, beautiful and perfect!

We now know that there is only one God who created everything and His Name is Allah. Allah makes all the seasons come and go and He created the Sun and the Moon, all the trees and fruits. He makes all the clouds and gives us rain. He makes the earth go round the Sun. The whole universe is so well organized because there is only one God.
APPENDIX II

STORY TIME SPECIAL: TALK TO ALLĀH [SWT]!

People all around the world pray to Allāh [SWT]. They talk to Him in their own languages; Allāh [SWT] understands every language!

Allāh [SWT] knows the needs of the people and loves it when we ask Him to Guide us, assist us, or even for something simple that we really want. He created us, so he will provide for us, we just need to talk to Him and show our love for Him and obey Him so that He is happy with us.
And now we are in Canada. I can see an old man walking home and he is talking to Allah in English.

And now we are in India. We can see a farmer speaking to Allah in Hindi and asking Him for rain. Do you see how everyone in the world speaks to Allah in his or her own language? Allah understands all the languages in the world and He even knows what we are thinking right now.

You can also talk to Allah any time you wish. What will you say to Allah when you go to bed tonight?

When you talk to Allah, even if you whisper very quietly, He can hear you.

You can even write a letter to Allah. But you don’t have to mail the letter. As soon as you write to Allah, He is reading your words.

You can even talk to Allah in your heart. He knows what you are thinking of and what is in your heart every moment. So talk to Allah any time and every time you remember Him!
The Shia Ithna’asheri Madressa is the Madressa (religious education centre) of the Khoja Shia Ithna’asheri Muslim Community of Stanmore, UK.

The S.I.Madressa was founded in 1985 and caters for the religious foundation of our community children.

The classes are held every Sunday for a duration of three hours, and the last 30 minutes are allocated to Salaat-ul-Jamaat for teachers, students & parents.

The S.I.Madressa has 4 main departments:
1. Akhlaq Morals & Ethics
2. Fiqh / Aqa’id Islamic Beliefs, Rules & Regulations
3. Tarikh Islamic History
4. Qur’an Recitation as well as Appreciation & Understanding

We also cater for students with learning difficulties and children with disabilities and special needs. These activities fall under the Learning Support and Special Needs departments.

Furthermore, the older students are accommodated for, with classes that prepare them for the outside world, equip them with qualities of leadership, and train them as future teachers.

The students are provided with an extensive and a comprehensive syllabus, which has also been adopted by many other Madaris and organisations across the globe. Furthermore, the S.I.Madressa has branched out onto the Internet, giving students and educators worldwide free access to the teaching material and manuals.

For further details and information about our activities, please visit www.madressa.net. Our notes are available for editing, sharing and improvement. If you would like to participate in improving the overall quality and content of these notes, please email admin@madressa.net.

These manuals were kindly donated for the Thawab of the Ruh of Marhum Akberali Pyarali Merali
